New Sunday School Council Makes Plans

The newly organized Sunday School Council of Little Joe's Church has held its first meeting and laid its plans for the work in the Church School. The organization of this Council is the result of the survey made by the Synod's office under the direction of Dr. Mann and his staff. Miss Anne McMichael and Dr. J. O. Mann, meeting with the Council, gave special guidance in its plans. It was decided to hold regular quarterly meetings, to arrange for Sunday School teachers and housemothers and all related to the children in their Church School to hold bi-annual meetings. Departmental graded literature was chosen for the departments beginning with the next quarter. The Council was made up from the regular officers of the Sunday School plus a representative from each department. The members are, Mr. R. G. Calhoun, Mr. I. B. White, Mr. J. B. Gibbs, Mrs. A. M. Calhoun, Mrs. Arthur Weincken, Mrs. Grier Kerr, Miss Eleanor Miller, Mr. Grier Kerr, Miss Reba Thompson, Mr. A. M. Calhoun, and Mr. W. A. Hethcox.

Miss Reba Thompson was elected secretary of the group and afforded copies of the minutes as a report to the Session and to the Home.

Celeste Henkel Victors In Tourney

For the first time in the twenty-three years of the running of the Mid-Piedmont Basketball Tournament, Celeste Henkel came out on top. The tournament was marked by hard and fast playing on the part of the well-coached high school boys. The Black Panthers of Scotts were entered as favorites, holding number one position in the season's standings, but found themselves upset by the Red-shirted boys from Cool Spring. This brought together for the finals Celeste Henkel and Cool Spring in a nip and tuck contest and the final whistle found Celeste Henkel the winner.

An interesting sidelight noted in the presentation of the trophies was that twenty-three years ago a Barium girl, Nettie Miller, was sponsor for the Celeste Henkel girls team and that in a sense this same girl was sponsor of the boys team from Celeste Henkel in the 1954 tourney because she

Dairy Boys Work Hard On Milk Production

The dairy boys under the direction of Mr. Arthur Hanks are working hard to get the herd in its fullest production. It has been decided that instead or erecting a pasteurizing unit on the campus milk can be produced and sold in such quantity as to enable the Home to purchase a sufficient amount for its use from the regular distributors of the pasteurized, homogenized milk.

The dairy crew is busy reinforcing the pasture fences and top dressing the permanent pasture areas. It is anticipated that the herd can be increased by about one-fourth its present number wherein there would be forty cows to milk. This number of cows, well fed and properly cared for, could produce nearly enough milk to offset the purchase price of processed milk.

In addition to the cows for milking, a beef herd has been started. One or two black Angus and one or two Herefords are already in the lot. With some cross breeding between

Congregation Elects NominatingCommittee

A congregational meeting of Little Joe's Church was held Sunday, March 7th, after the morning service for the purpose of electing a committee to nominate a minister to be the pastor of the Church. The congregation elected five persons to serve on the committee. These are Miss Neely Ford, Miss French Boyd, Edwin K. Kyles, Donald Bolton, and Jack Crews.

This committee, working together with the superintendent of the Home, will through the regular procedure endeavor to secure as early as possible a pastor for the Church to succeed Reverend Charles H. Sides who accepted a call to the Harrisburg Presbyterian Church.

At the present time the pulpit is being supplied by Dr. W. G. Workman, a member of Mecklenburg Presbytery and head of the Department of Psychology at Davidson College. Regular services of the Church, the Church School, and the Youth groups will be held each Sunday. The Senior High Fellowship is particularly fortunate in having Miss Anne McMichael, one of the Area workers of the Synod, giving especial attention to the work of the Council and the Sunday Vesper meetings.

After Kites Comes Marble Time

The strong March wind may be annoying to the ladies with big hats but it is a wonderful thing for a boy with a kite. Though there is but a slender thread connecting the tiny speck off in the distance with the slender lad on the ground, yet there is a feeling in the heart of the boy who holds the cord that he is flying through the air. Kites of every size, shape and color have been made and started up. Some never made the rise and landed with a thud on the ground, others began to rise and took a sudden dip back to earth and ended their flight, then others rose in the air and were caught in the cross currents and out into the limbs of the big oaks. After patient tugging away on the part of the boy doing the flying they had to be left there because they were hung in the limbs of the tree. The wind continued to drive it against the branches until its form had become tattered and torn and all that was left was the evidence of a boy's dream broken on the boughs of the tree. For others there were the rolls of twine that tied together to carry aloft the kite that was flightworthy and into the blue she went, riding against the wind and tugging away at the hands and arms of the small boys unwinding the cord from the sticks. Somehow the les-

Girls Capture Conference Crown

The Girls basketball team brought in another South Piedmont Conference trophy as champions for 1954. Having finished the regular season's play with the top rating in the northern half of the South Piedmont Conference with an 11-2 record, the Girls team entered the Western N. C. High School Activities Association Tournament. Under the capable direction of Coach A. M. Calhoun, the girls were victorious in the first round, winning over Statesville. The second round paired them with Winecoff who had moved into the semi-finals by defeating Landis. This victory over the sextette from the southern half of the South Piedmont Conference gave the Barium cagers undisputed title of the South Piedmont Conference for the year 1954, and threw them into the final round against the champion of the Western Conference, Lincolnton who had a perfect record for the season. Although the Barium girls had the height over the Lincolnton team, they found the speed and aggressiveness of the girls coached by Jack Kiser too much in the finals and wound up with second place in the tournament. Each member of the squad received a gold basketball as an individual award though they were unable to bring back to

Five Hundred Visits To Dental Office

A fine dental program under the supervision of the volunteer committee of dentists was carried out on the campus during 1953. The summary of the dental work completed during the year shows that there were 500 visits to the dental office, resulting in the filling of 753 teeth, the extraction of 75, radiographs of 53, with other work, such as having the teeth cleaned, two crowns, two partial dentures, and the fixing of one bridge, completing the picture.

Presbyterian dentists in the neighboring area have given of their free time and through their arrangements Dr. William S. Kirk of Salisbury has spent two days a week on the campus in the dental office arranged for in the Infirmary. It is reported that the teeth of the seniors and the juniors have all been fully cared for and all the emergencies have been attended to and the conditions needing attention the most throughout the rest of the student body are being cared for.

While most dental work is accompanied with some pain, it also affords a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction to know that one of the great needs of the campus is now being met through this particular program. The members of the steering committee are Dr.

Baby Cottage

Hello There,

We at Baby Cottage are having some wonderful times. We had a valentine and birthday party combined. One of our big girls Anne McLean and one of our little boys Mitchel Brumley had a birthday. Everybody had a good time and we thoroughly enjoyed the cake and ice cream The cake was made by .Mrs. Thaggard the baby girls house mother.

We all went in to see the movie Lassie, "The Painted Hills." Many thanks to the State and Playhouse Theaters for the tickets which were given to us as Christmas presents.

We are very proud of the new addition of the little girls who have come to join our family. Her name is Nancy Finley and she is four years old.

We will close for now, see you next month.

—Bernice Kuykendall
Addie & Ann.

Quads

It seems that time has boarded a jet plane in the last few months. We hardly get something planned before the day rolls around.

Basketball is over now and we will start skating in the activities building, we are looking forward to this.

Report cards came out last week and we had twelve on the honor roll. This reminds us that there are only three months of school left, and believe me there is going to be some celebrating when these three months draw to a close.

We are proud of our honor roll boys, eleven this month. They were guests of Miss Pope and Mrs. Ramsay at a special dinner at Quad 3. Many thanks to the Hallie Pope Bible Class of Trinity Ave. Church, Durham, for the check which helped buy the food which Mrs. Ramsay and Miss Pope prepared.

Mrs. Ramsay has been keeping all of us fed lately, though sometimes she insists that we eat too much. We are trying to convince her that she should start feeding us steak every night, but she just won't cooperate.

The Senior High Fellowship, of which most of us are members, are planning to take a trip to Loray, the 13th of March, for an afternoon of fun. Mr. Sides, who until recently, was our pastor and the advisor of the Fellowship, left last week, and we have not been able to replace him yet.

The seniors got their pictures back from the studio and they are having quite a time trying to give them away, however we can be sure of the fact that our buildings will be free of mice in the months ahead.

I know many of you have been looking forward to this issue, to find out how Clayton's musical lessons are coming along. I am sorry to disappoint you, but I haven't any news along that line, however, I might say that recently there have been some odd sounds coming from the direction of his room.

See you next month.

—Leroy Norman.

Howard Cottage

Howdy, Folks,

This is Howard Cottage bringing you the latest news of this cottage.

Saturday the 27th, we went to Marie Andrew's wedding. The bride was beautiful. For most of us it was our first wedding.

Six girls made the honor roll. They were: Virginia Dare Lane, Sue Moore, Margaret Farris, Betty Lou Mitchell, Vicki Brafford and Faye Hicks.

Thursday, March 4, the grades from the fifth through the seventh will have their class games of basketball. The fifth grade will play the sixth grade. We are already getting excited.

Friday night the girls choir of Barium Springs will sing at the Lutheran Church at Troutman. All of us are in the Girls Choir except three girls.

We got our bicycles fixed last Saturday and how glad we were! We started riding them the first thing. Bicycles are fun, that is if you can ride them well enough to stay on.

—Faye Hicks
Nancy Mobley.

Print Shop

Hi Folks,

It has been a long time since you have heard from us. We are still around here doing the printing worked needed to be done.

We got our report cards last week. We had one of our boys on the honor roll. His name is Mirton Cox.

We are through with our basketball season now. Our girls team was first place in the conference. Our boys were about .fifth or sixth place Mirton Cox made first team for the varisty.

James Woodall and Charles Creech held down the work while Mirton was practicing and playing games.

One of our old print shop boys, who graduated a fews years ago is helping to get the Irdell County News started. We wish him a lot of luck.

The other day Mirton said to Charles, "Do you know how much a monkey weighs." Charles said, "no" Mirton said, "Here is a penny go weigh your self." Boy, did we get a laugh out of that.

Skating will soon start. I can hardly wait for it to come. It soon will be time for soft ball.

It soon will be a happy time around Barium. In about ten more weeks school will be out.

Well, folks so long until next time.

The Ink Smearers

Annie Louise

Hi Folks,

Here we are back again to give the big events of Annie Louise Cottage. This past month of February has had many days to celebrate.

One big event was Valentines Day. We enjoyed making the valentines very much. If some one would give us a valentine we would use the name on it and give it to some one else. We still enjoy trading them with each other.

We also had a good time celebrating Abraham Lincoln and George Washington's birthdays. Two of our little girls came in one day from school and went up to our house mother and asked her if she knew who their boy friends were, one said Abraham Lincoln was hers and the other one said George Washington was hers. our housemother said, "Girls you are aiming high, go to it."

We got our report cards Friday and we have fourteen girls on the honor roll and one of our big girls. We have had the most on the honor roll this time. We are all very proud that we had so many, for we had a party and had many good things to eat.

Mr. Sides, our pastor, resigned and has gone to Harrisburg. We loved Mr. Sides very much and we sure will miss him, we hope that he will come back often and visit us.

One of our former girls from here, Marie Andrews, was married Saturday night to Robert Howard. She looked very pretty and we felt as if we wanted to go up and touch her wedding gown. We love to see weddings because we get to see all the pretty dresses. We got to see her close up and wished we had some rice to throw on her.

We have begun work in our flower garden and love to dig very much. We have already gotten a few flowers that are blooming. They are Jonquils and are very pretty.

Well it is the season for flying kites and we are trying to make us some. We like to watch the kites go up high and come down and then get caught in a tree.

Well the basketball games are over and our housemother is very glad because we always have so much trouble getting ready to go. Our team has won all their games and they got to enter the tournament and they played Statesville, March 2, and we sure hope we win. We haven't found out yet who won.

Well so long folks, we will see you next month.

Services Held For Mrs. Dagenhart

Mrs. Mary Alice Dagenhart, 84, Stony Point, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bettie Waugh, of Barium Springs.

Mrs. Dagenhart was the wife of Thomas H. Dagenhart, Stony Point, who preceded her in death 30 years ago. She is survived by seven children: Mrs. George Stewart, route 3; Mrs. Roy Waugh, route 1; Mrs. Howard Patterson, route 6; Clyde S. Dagenhart, route 6, all of Statesville; and Mrs. Bill Moose, rout 1, Stony Point; Cecil Eugene and James A. Dagenhart, Cool Springs. There are 34 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, March 3, at Marvin Methodist church, Stony Point. Interment was in the church cemetery.

the Holstein and the black Angus some of the calves can be used for beef. It has long been the intent to reduce the amount of pork provided for the Home and increase the amount of beef. It is hoped that this herd can be increased to the point where the needs of the Home can be met from its own farm.

son is imparted that it is not riding with the soft winds that makes the kite soar but being held tightly against the strong winds that carries it into the air. So it is with life, not the easy way, but bucking the strength of the cross currents, the individual is able to rise into the realm of God's wonder and perform his marvelous works.

About the time that the kite season which keeps their minds in the air is over, the marble season which brings them down to the ground, sets in. The inevitable marks of the game tell the housemothers immediately that the season is open for the knees of the blue jeans have that unmistakeable red color for a day or two and then begin to fade to show the pink of flesh coming through the holes.

The little rings and the big rings with the call of "Steady Knucks" and "Nothings" and "Dubs" and "Thribs" are familiar sights and sounds. Steady aim and a trusty agate send the marbles flying from the ring to be gathered up by the best shooter in the group. At recess time at school, at lunch time, and in the afternoons, and after supper the little fellows are busy drawing the rings and taking the other fellow on. With earnestness and zeal they ply their accomplished skill and become victorious in the game by rules of fair play and eager competition.

So, whether it is flying kites or shooting marbles, the life of childhood has its wonder to be enjoyed and its pleasures to be recalled.

the trophy case the large gold basketball which they had been eyeing all week as a special trophy for the winners of the combined tournament.

In announcing the all tournament teams one guard and one foward from the Home were chosen, Jackie Kuykendall of the senior class and Edna Baucom of the junior class. The all-tournament team as chosen by the special committee are as follows:

Forwards: Nancy Woodruff, Lenoir; Arlene Balsavage, Statesville; Maebelle Aderholt, Lincolnton; Donny Smith, Lincolnton; Margaret Meismer, China Grove; Edna Baucom, Barium Springs.

Guards: Doris Leatherman, Lincolnton; Jackie Kuykendall, Barium Springs; Sue Link, Lenoir; Sally McLaughlin, Statesville; Eleanor Rufty, Taylorsville; Shirley Michael, Lincolnton.

Prospects for next year will be good as Coach Calhoun will have returning for the squad four of this year's juniors in the starting line-up. Only two seniors from the starting line-up graduate and only one other senior is on the squad.

The season's record of the team in the conference give good indication that competition in the next year is going to be unusually strong through the South Piedmont Conference and the Western Conference and the regular tournament at the end of the year is going to find strong teams from both divisions making up the WNCHSAA.

Juniors Attend Career Day

Members of the Junior Class at Barium joined with hundreds of other students from the Statesville area for Career Day at Mitchell College. Special leaders chosen from the various vocations were kept busy throughout the day at Mitchell with the interested groups that came in to discuss their life work. The Junior Class under the direction of Mr. W. A. Hethcox, teacher in the high school, left the campus early, taking lunch at Fraley's Cafeteria in Statesville through special arrangements made for the day's activities. The juniors of the high school and the leaders who were in charge of the planning feel that Career Day is exceptionally valuable to the students in finding themselves and choosing their vocations. The part of Mitchell College in making the campus and clossrooms available for the day is very helpful to the high school students and through this medium a great service is rendered to the boys and girls.

Former Governor of Massachusetts Gives His Church $150,000

(From Charity And Children)

To the Editor:

Former Givernor Alvan T. Fuller of Massachusetts has set an example which may inspire other wealthy Baptists to do likewise.

In his address to the membership of First Baptist Church, Malden, Mass., on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the church, the former Governor closed his message by saying in part:

"I hope our children will get the same benefit from their church attendance that I have received, and I wish to help to that end. I have said many times that I would prefer what I call a working knowledge of the Bible to a college education. When I joined this church as a mere lad, the pastor gave me a New Testament and asked me to read a chapter every night. I did that faithfully for years, and that, together with the sermons and Sunday school teachers, stand out in my life as a boy like a beacon light, and gave me what I call, for want of a better name, a working knowledge of the Bible. .

"I want you to know that this church, and all that it stands for, has done more for me than any other organization or connection that I have made in all my life. I have been most fortunate in having a fine mother and father, sister, wife, and children, as you all know. However, it is to acknowledge my indebtness to this church and my desire to help perpetuate it for others, that they may receive the benefits and inspiration which I received here, that I am leaving with the pastor a little envelope to help give to others the advantages which I have enjoyed as a member of the First Baptist Church at Malden."

In. the envelope was Mr Fuller's personal check in the amount of $150,000.00 and this statement: "as a slight acknowledgement of my great debt to this, my home church."

—Bruce H. Price, First Church, Newport News, Va.

HOWARD-ANDREWS VOWS SPOKEN IN IMPRESSIVE CHURCH EVENT

In an impressive seven o'clock ceremony Saturday, Feb. 27th, Miss Annie Marie Andrews of Concord, became the bride of James Robert Howard of Kannapolis, in Little Joe's Presbyterian Church, Barium Springs. The Rev. Charles H. Sides officiated

To plight their troth, the couple stood before a traditional background of palms, and standards of white carnations and gladioli. Gleaming white tapers in branched candelabra lighted the wedding scene.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Rachel Spencer of Statesville, pianist, and Cosmo Peche of Concord, soloist. Mr. Peche's selections were "Through the Years", "With These Hands," "O Promise Me," and as the benediction "The Lord's Prayer." Instrumental numbers included the traditional bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" as the processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" as the recessional.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by A. B. McClure, superintendent of Barium Springs Orphanage. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of bridal white satin designed with a basque bodice trimmed in Irish lace and full softly draped skirt. Her finger tip veil of imported illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white purple-throated orchid poised on a white prayer-book showered with love knots and satin streamers. The bride's only ornament was a strand of matched pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. D. A. Moore of Concord attended the bride as matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a formal gown of shrimp pink nylon net poised over satin featuring a skirt of three net tiers. She wore a matching headdress and mitts and carried a cascade bouquet of blue carnation and tuberoses showered with satin streamers.

J. M. Howard of Kannapapolis, served his son as best man. Ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Bill Howard, Basil Howard and Buford Howard, and his brother-in-law, R. D. Kincaid, all of Kannapolis.

Mrs. J. H. Howard chose for her son's wedding a navy dress with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal couple received guests informally in the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. Howard is the daughter of Paul E. Andrews of Spring Lake. She was graduated from Barium Springs High School, and is employed by The Concord Tribune

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Howard of Kannapolis. He is a graduate of Cannon High School, Kannapolis, and served two year in the United States Army. He is employed by Cannon Mills, Plant 1.

After March 7, Mr. and Mrs Howard will be at home in their apartment, 276 Kerr St., Concord.
